LAW BOOKS PURCHASED OR VALUED.

STEVENS AND SONS' COLUMN.

Daniell's Chancery Forms. Third Edition.

Now ready, in one thick volume, price £2 2*s*.

FORMS AND PRECEDENTS OF PROCEEDINGS IN THE CHANCERY DIVISION OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE AND ON APPEAL THEREFROM; with Practical Notes, forming a complete guide to the Practice of the Chancery Division of the High Court and of the Courts of Appeal. By W. H. UPJOHN, Esq., Student and Holt Scholar of Gray's Inn; Exhibitioner in Jurisprudence and Roman Law in the University of London; Holder of the First Senior Studentship in Jurisprudence, Roman Law, and International Law, awarded by the Council of Legal Education in Hilary Term, 1879.

"We have had this work in practical use for some weeks, and so careful is the noting up of the Authorities, so clearly and concisely are the notes expressed, that we have found it as much value as the ordinary text-books on the Judicature Acts. . . . . it will be as useful a work to practitioners at Westminster as it will be to those in Lincoln's Inn. The labour entailed in the compilation must have been severe, and we venture to predict a complete success for this new edition of an old friend."—Law Times, February 1, 1879.

Now ready, Ninth Edition, in 2 vols., royal 8vo., price £3 10*s*.

PRIDEAUX'S PRECEDENTS IN CONVEYANCING. With Dissertations on its Law and Practice. By FREDERICK PRIDEAUX, late Professor of the Law of Real and Personal Property to the Inns of Court, and JOHN WHITCOMBE, Esqrs., Barristers-at-Law. 1879.

"The volumes are now something more than a mere collection of precedents; they contain most valuable dissertations on the law and practice with reference to conveyancing. These dissertations are followed by the precedents on each subject dealt with, and are in themselves condensed treatises, embodying all the latest case and statute law. We may instance, as excellent specimens of legal essay writing, the dissertations on trustees and husband and wife in the second volume, and on conditions of sale in the first. Having regard to the wide general knowledge required of all lawyers in the present day, such a work as this must prove highly acceptable to the whole Profession."—Law Times, January 4, 1879.

Just published demy 8vo., price 18*s*.

CHURCHILL'S SHERIFF LAW.—The Law of the Office and Duties of the Sheriff, with the Writs and Forms relating to the Office, By CAMERON CHURCHILL, B.A., assisted by A. CARMICHAEL BRUCE, B.A., Barristers-at-Law.

Just published, Fourth Edition, demy 8vo., price 10*s*. 6*d*.

JOHNSON'S PATENTEE'S MANUAL; being a Treatise on the Law and Practice of Letters Patent, especially intended for the use of Patentees and Inventors. By JAMES JOHNSON, Barrister-at-Law, and J. HENRY JOHNSON, Assoc. Inst. C.E., Solicitor and Patent Agent. Fourth Edition, thoroughly Revised and much Enlarged.

Just published, post 8vo., price 4*s*. 6*d*.

WALKER'S PRACTICE ON SIGNING JUDGMENT in the HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE. With Forms. By H. H. WALKER, Esq., of the Judgment Department, Exchequer Division.

Now ready, demy 8vo., price 14*s*.

SEBASTIAN ON THE LAW OF TRADE MARKS.—The Law of Trade Marks and their Registration, and matters connected therewith, including a Chapter on Goodwill. Together with Appendices containing Precedents of Injunctions, &c.; the Trade Marks Registration Acts, 1875-7, and the Rules and Instructions thereunder; the Merchandise Marks Act, 1862, and other Statutory Enactments; the United States Statutes, 1870; the Treaty with the United States, 1877; and the New Rules and Instructions, February, 1878. With a copious Index. By LEWIS BOYD SEBASTIAN, B.C.L., M.A., Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"Mr. Sebastian has written the fullest and most methodical book on trade marks which has appeared in England since the passing of the Trade Marks Registration Acts. . . . The book closes with an appendix of statutes and forms of injunctions, of which we desire to speak in terms of high praise."—Trade Marks.

Published this day, demy 8vo., price 12*s*.

LAW BOOKS PURCHASED OR VALUED.

STEVENS AND SONS' COLUMN.

Published this day, Fourth Edition, demy 8vo., price 26*s*.

DIXON'S LAW OF THE FARM. With a Digest of Cases, and including the Agricultural Customs of England and Wales. By HENRY PERKINS, Barrister-at-Law, of the Midland Circuit.

Now ready, Vol. II., Part I., royal 8vo., price £1 10*s*.

SETON'S FORMS OF DECREES, JUDGMENTS, and ORDERS in the HIGH COURT of JUSTICE, and COURTS of APPEAL, having especial reference to the Chancery Division, with Practical Notes. Fourth Edition. By R. H. LEACH, Esq., Senior Registrar of the Court of Chancery; F. G. A. WILLIAMS, of the Inner Temple, Esq.; and the late H. W. MAY, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., continued by JAMES EASTWICK, of Lincoln's Inn, Esq.; Barristers-at-Law.

The great length to which the work has extended, from the variety and importance of the subjects dealt with, has rendered it desirable to divide this volume into two parts:—

Part I. contains—Married Women; Infants; Account; Administration of Real and Personal Estate; Partition and Sale under the Partition Acts, 1868, 1876; Mortgages; Principal and Surety; Partnership; Settlements; Specific Performance; Specific Relief; and Sales by the Court.

Part II., completing the work, will be published before Easter.

"The most consummate industry appears to have been brought to bear upon this most important and valuable and standard work; and when completed, it will be an excellent illustration of the thorough manner in which legal works of reference are compiled in the present day."—Law Times, February 8, 1879.

Now ready. Second Edition. Demy 8vo., price £1 6*s*.

POLLOCK'S PRINCIPLES OF CONTRACT AT LAW AND IN EQUITY; being a Treatise on the General Principles concerning the Validity of Agreements, with a special view to the comparison of Law and Equity, and with references to the Indian Contract Act, and occasionally to Roman, American, and Continental Law. By FREDERICK POLLOCK, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, Author of "Digest of the Law of Partnership."

The Lord Chief Justice, in his judgment in Metropolitan Railway Company v. Brogden and Others, said: "The law is well put by Mr. Frederick Pollock in his very able and learned work on Contracts."—The Times.

Sixth Edition. Super-royal 8vo., price £2 2*s*.

WHARTON'S LAW LEXICON; or, Dictionary of Jurisprudence. Explaining the Technical Words and Phrases employed in the several Departments of English Law; including the various legal terms used in Commercial Business; with an Explanatory as well as Literal Translation of the Latin Maxims contained in the writings of the ancient and modern Commentators. Sixth Edition. Revised in accordance with the Judicature Acts. By J. SHIRESS WILL, Esq., Barrister-at-Law. 1876.

"As a work of reference for the library, the handsome and elaborate edition of 'Wharton's Law Lexicon' which Mr. Shiress Will has produced, must supersede all former issues of that well-known work."—Law Magazine.

Second Edition, enlarged.

WILSON'S JUDICATURE ACTS, THE SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE ACTS, APPELLATE JURISDICTION ACT, 1876, RULES OF COURT and FORMS, with other Acts, Orders, Rules, and Regulations relating to the Supreme Court of Justice. With Practical Notes. By ARTHUR WILSON, of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. (Assisted by HARRY GREENWOOD, of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law, and JOHN BIDDLE, of the Master of the Rolls' Chambers.) 1876.

The work is issued as follows:—

1. In royal 12mo., cloth . . . . . Price 18*s*. 0*d*.
2. Do. limp leather (for the Pocket) . . . . . „ 22*s*. 6*d*.
3. In royal 8vo., on fine paper (with wide margin for Notes), cloth . „ 25*s*. 0*d*.
4. Do. limp leather . . . . . „ 30*s*. 0*d*.

"As regards Mr. Wilson's notes, we can only say that they are indispensable to the proper understanding of the new system of procedure. They treat the principles upon which the alterations are based with a clearness and breadth of view which have never been equalled or even approached by any other commentator. The Table of Cases, containing a reference to each series of reports, which Mr. Biddle has prefixed to the work, is a valuable feature."—Solicitors' Journal, April 20, 1878.

Now ready, price 1*s*.; by post, 1*s*. 1*d*.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver.... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns d'expression, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

CHANCERY DIVISION.

TRANSFER OF CAUSES.

ORDER OF COURT.

Friday, the 14th day of February, 1879.

WHEREAS from the present state of the Business before THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS, the Vice-Chancellors, SIR RICHARD MALINS, SIR JAMES BACON, SIR CHARLES HALL, and Mr. Justice FRY, it is expedient that a portion of the Causes assigned to THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS, and the Vice-Chancellors SIR RICHARD MALINS, and SIR CHARLES HALL, and now standing for trial or hearing before their Lordships, should be transferred to the Court of the Vice-Chancellor SIR JAMES BACON, and for the purpose only of trial or of hearing be transferred from the Vice-Chancellor SIR JAMES BACON to Mr. Justice FRY: Now I, the Right Honorable HUGH MACCALMONT EARL CAIRNS, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, do hereby Order that the several Causes set forth in the Schedule hereto be accordingly transferred from THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS and the Vice-Chancellors SIR RICHARD MALINS and SIR CHARLES HALL to the Vice-Chancellor SIR JAMES BACON, and taken as Causes assigned to the Vice-Chancellor SIR JAMES BACON, and be marked in the Cause Books accordingly. And I do further Order that the same Causes when so transferred be for the purpose only of trial or of hearing transferred from the Vice-Chancellor SIR JAMES BACON to Mr. Justice FRY; but no Order made by THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS or the Vice-Chancellors SIR RICHARD MALINS and SIR CHARLES HALL is to be varied or reversed otherwise than by the Court of Appeal. And this Order is to be drawn up by the Registrar, and set up in the several Offices of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

FORMS AND PRECEDENTS OF PROCEEDINGS IN THE CHANCERY DIVISION OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE AND ON APPEAL THEREFROM; with Practical Notes, forming a complete guide to the Practice of the Chancery Division of the High Court and of the Courts of Appeal. By W. H. UPJOHN, Esq., Student and Holt Scholar of Gray's Inn; Exhibitioner in Jurisprudence and Roman Law in the University of London; Holder of the First Senior Studentship in Jurisprudence, Roman Law, and International Law, awarded by the Council of Legal Education in Hilary Term, 1879.

"We have had this work in practical use for some weeks, and so careful is the noting up of the Authorities, so clearly and concisely are the notes expressed, that we have found it as much value as the ordinary text-books on the Judicature Acts. . . . . It will be as useful a work to practitioners at Westminster as it will be to those in Lincoln's Inn. The labour entailed in the compilation must have been severe, and we venture to predict a complete success for this new edition of an old friend."—Law Times, February 1, 1879.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

ORDER OF COURT.

Monday, the 24th February, 1879.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me that the state of health of the Honourable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD MALINS is such as temporarily to prevent his sitting in Court, or in Chambers, for hearing and determining Causes and Matters which have been assigned to and are now pending in his Court: I, the Right Honourable HUGH MACCALMONT EARL CAIRNS, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, do therefore order that all Causes and Matters which have been assigned to and are now pending before the Honourable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD MALINS be for all purposes transferred, until further Order, to the Honourable Sir EDWARD FRY, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, attached to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, to be heard and disposed of by him, so far and to such extent as he shall consider necessary or expedient. But no Order made by the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD MALINS is to be varied or reversed otherwise than by the Court of Appeal. And this Order is to be drawn up by the Registrar and set up in the several Offices of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

W. MAXWELL & SON'S LIST OF LAW BOOKS.

In 2 vols. 8vo., price £2 10s., cloth.

A COMPENDIUM OF PRECEDENTS IN CONVEYANCING:

COMPRISING THE FORMS REQUIRED IN ORDINARY PRACTICE.

By THOMAS KEY, one of the Editors of "Davidson's Precedents"; and HOWARD WARBURTON ELPHINSTONE, formerly Lecturer to the Incorporated Law Society; both of Lincoln's Inn, Barristers-at-Law.

REVIEWS.

"It is obvious that the book is intended primarily to meet the wants of the solicitor's office, and there can be no question that it constitutes one of the most elaborate and, at the same time, considering its range and character, the most handy books of precedents for this purpose which has appeared in recent times. . . . . The strongest part of Vol. I. seems to be that devoted to leases, which strikes us as very satisfactory. . . . . The collection of forms is very extensive, and many are very carefully framed. Thus, there is a good form of underlease of business offices on p. 538; a very complete form of lease of public-house on p. 560; and proviso, on p. 591, with reference to the sale under a distress of things covenanted to be consumed on the premises, with reference to Hawkins v. Walrond (22 W. R. 824, L. R. 1 C. P. D. 280). Of course nothing but actual use can effectually test the merit of a book of precedents, but, so far as we can judge from an examination of this work, we think it will stand the test, and be found of very great value."—Solicitors' Journal, December 21st, 1878.

"Many legal documents of considerable moment are prepared in solicitors' offices, and never settled by counsel; and a trustworthy guide for work of this kind, sufficiently copious in its variety of matter and adequate to the modern standard of conveyancing style, was certainly a desideratum. The names of the editors are of themselves enough to warrant the quality of the work; and the expectation they naturally raise is confirmed by such examination as we have been able to make."—Saturday Review, December 14th, 1878.

2 vols., royal 8vo., price £3 15s., cloth.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver .... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns pour rire surtout, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

ELPHINSTONE'S INTRODUCTION TO CONVEYANCING.—A PRACTICAL INTRODUCTION TO CONVEYANCING, containing the substance of Two Courses of Lectures delivered before the Incorporated Law Society in 1869, 1870, and 1871. By HOWARD WARBURTON ELPHINSTONE, of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law.

"The whole volume is replete with instruction, and cannot be too attentively studied by those to whose care the interests of clients as involved in transfer and mortgage of property, marriage settlements, and wills, will be hereafter entrusted."—Law Journal, May 26, 1871.

In 2 vols., 8vo., price £2 10s., cloth.

A COMPENDIUM OF PRECEDENTS IN CONVEYANCING;

COMPRISING

THE FORMS REQUIRED IN ORDINARY PRACTICE.

By THOMAS KEY, one of the Editors of "Davidson's Precedents"; and HOWARD WARBURTON ELPHINSTONE, formerly Lecturer to the Incorporated Law Society; both of Lincoln's Inn, Barristers-at-Law.

"It is obvious that the book is intended primarily to meet the wants of the solicitor's office, and there can be no question that it constitutes one of the most elaborate and, at the same time, considering its range and character, the most handy books of precedents for this purpose which has appeared in recent times. . . . . The strongest part of Vol. I. seems to be that devoted to leases, which strikes us as very satisfactory. . . . . The collection of forms is very extensive, and many are very carefully framed. Thus, there is a good form of underlease of business offices on p. 538; a very complete form of lease of public-house on p. 560; and proviso, on p. 591, with reference to the sale under a distress of things covenanted to be consumed on the premises, with reference to Hawkins v. Walrond (22 W. R. 824, L. R. 1 C. P. D. 280). Of course nothing but actual use can effectually test the merit of a book of precedents, but, so far as we can judge from an examination of this work, we think it will stand the test, and be found of very great value."—Solicitors' Journal, December 21st, 1878.

"This book might perhaps have been more aptly termed 'compendium of forms and precedents in conveyancing,' for the forms are the conspicuous features of it. The work is built on a different system to most conveyancing precedents, a very large number of forms being given in it, and the precedents being worked out by reference to and not by incorporation of the forms. . . . . It has another advantage, viz., that concise as well as full forms are thus given; and as conciseness is, we are pleased to say, the fashion among conveyancers of the modern school, the abbreviations will be more appreciated. . . . : Apart from other merits, the large variety and immense number of forms and precedents comprised in these two compendious volumes of Messrs. Key and Elphinstone must make them valuable auxiliaries to the conveyancer; in fact, they are worthy to be placed by the side of Mr. Davidson's and Mr. Prideaux's standard conveyancing books. We presume that Messrs. Key and Elphinstone considered that those two well-known works contain all necessary dissertations and notes on the law and practice; for these authors have, we think rightly, embodied but a few notes of a practical character; in fact, they have made their work purely and simply a compendium of forms and precedents in conveyancing."—Law Journal, January 4th, 1879.

"An examination of the work has convinced us that it really supplies a mass of fresh material which every conveyancer will find a most useful addition to his library. . . . . We can thoroughly recommend the book to both branches of the profession, but more especially to solicitors, who will find it a valuable aid for ready use in all ordinary conveyancing practice."—Law Magazine, February, 1879.

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver.... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns d'heureux souvenir, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, LINCOLN'S INN,
20th March, 1879.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

MARCH, 1879.

I, THE RIGHT HONOURABLE HUGH MACCALMONT EARL CAIRNS, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, do hereby, in pursuance of the seventeenth section of "The Appellate Jurisdiction Act, 1876," appoint Lord Justice Brett, Mr. Justice Lush, Mr. Baron Pollock, and Mr. Justice Manisty to be the four Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature by whom, together with the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of England, the Master of the Rolls, the Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, Rules of Court shall be made as therein mentioned. And this appointment is to continue in force until the first day of January, 1880.

March 22nd, 1879. CAIRNS, C.

RULES.

1. These Rules may be cited as "The Rules of the Supreme Court, March, 1879," or each separate Rule may be cited as if it had been one of the Rules of the Supreme Court, and had been numbered by the number and the Order and Rule mentioned in the margin.

2. These Rules shall come into operation on the 27th March, 1879.

ORDER V.

3. Order V. Rule 4a.]—If, in any action commenced and pending in any one of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer Divisions of the High Court, the trial shall take place before a Judge of another of the said Divisions, the cause shall from that time be transferred to the Division of which such Judge is a member.

Digitized by Google

ORDER XIX.

4. Order XIX. Rule 29*a*.]—When a cause in the Chancery Division is proceeding in a District Registry, all certificates of the Chief Clerk and Taxing Masters and all affidavits and other documents (required to be filed) used in London before the Judge in Chambers, or before any Taxing Master or Referee of the Court, and not already filed in the District Registry, shall be filed in the same office as they would have been filed in if the proceedings had originally commenced in London; and if the Court or Judge shall so direct, office copies thereof shall be transmitted to the District Registry.

ORDER XXXVI.

5. Order XXXVI. Rule 34.]—Rule 34 is hereby annulled, and the following shall stand in lieu thereof:—

Rule 34.

The Referee may, before the conclusion of any trial before him, or by his report under the reference made to him, submit any question arising therein for the decision of the Court, or state any facts specially, with power to the Court to draw inferences therefrom, and in any such case the order to be made on such submission or statement shall be entered as the Court may direct; and the Court shall have power to require any explanation or reasons from the Referee, and to remit the cause or matter, or any part thereof, for re-trial or further consideration to the same or any other Referee; or the Court may decide the question referred to any Referee on the evidence taken before him either with or without additional evidence as the Court may direct.

ORDER XXXIX.

6. Order XXXIX. Rule 1*a*.]—Rule 1*a* is hereby annulled, and the following shall stand in lieu thereof:—

Rule 1*a*.

Applications for new trial shall be by motion calling on the opposite party to shew cause at the expiration of eight days from the date of the Order, or so soon after as the case can be heard, why a new trial should not be directed. Such motion shall be made within the times following, unless the Court, or a Judge, shall enlarge the time:—

An application to a Divisional Court for a new trial, if the trial has taken place in London or Westminster, shall be made within four days after the trial, or on the first subsequent day on which a Divisional Court, to which the application may be made, shall have actually sat to hear motions. If the trial has taken place elsewhere than in London or Middlesex, the motion shall be made within seven days after the last day of sitting on the Circuits for England and Wales during which the action shall have been tried, or within the first four days of the next following sittings, if such day occurs during or within a week immediately before a vacation.

ORDER LII.

7. Order LII. Rule 6*a*].—Whenever the trusts of any Will or Settlement are being administered, and a sale is ordered of any property vested in the trustees of such Will or Settlement upon trust for sale or with power of sale by such trustees, the conduct of such sale shall be given to such trustees unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

ORDER LIV.

8. Order LIV. Rule 6.]—Rule 6 is hereby annulled, and the following shall stand in lieu thereof:—

Rule 6.

In the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer Divisions, every appeal to the Court from any decision at Chambers shall be by motion, and shall be made within eight days after the decision appealed against, or, if no Court to which such appeal can be made shall sit within such eight days, then on the first day on which any such Court may be sitting after the expiration of such eight days.

ORDER LVIII.

8. Order LVIII. Rule 5*a*.]—If upon the hearing of an appeal from a judgment pronounced by a Judge or Court on the verdict or finding of a jury, or of a Judge without a jury, it shall appear to the Court of Appeal that a new trial ought to be had, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Appeal, if it shall think fit, to order that the verdict and judgment shall be set aside, and that a new trial shall be had.

ORDER LXI.

10. Order LXI. Rule 2*a*.]—The Easter vacation in the present year shall, as regards the offices of the Registrars and Taxing Masters of the Chancery Division, commence on Good Friday, and terminate on Saturday the 19th day of April.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver .... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns d'outre-tombe, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.

THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

PROBATE, DIVORCE, AND ADMIRALTY DIVISION.

EASTER SITTINGS, 1879.

PROBATE AND MATRIMONIAL.

THE CAUSES set down for trial will be taken in the following order—

SPECIAL JURY CAUSES—Commencing Wednesday, April 23rd.
(1st.) Probate Causes. (2nd.) Matrimonial Causes.

PROBATE AND MATRIMONIAL CAUSES BEFORE THE COURT ITSELF will be taken after the Special Jury Causes, in the following order:—
Probate Causes.
Defended Matrimonial Causes.
Undefended Matrimonial Causes.

COMMON JURY CAUSES will be taken on Friday, May 23rd and following days.
(1st.) Probate Causes. (2nd.) Matrimonial Causes.

FULL COURT, Tuesday, April 29th.

Summonses will be heard in Chambers at half-past 10 o'clock, and Motions will be heard in Court at 12 o'clock on Tuesday, April 22nd, and on each succeeding Tuesday during the Sittings.

All Papers for Motions on Tuesday, April 22nd, must be left with the Clerk of the Papers in the Probate Registry at Somerset House, or with the Chief Clerk of the Divorce Registry at the same place, before 2 o'clock, P.M. on Wednesday, April 16th, and for Motions on subsequent Tuesdays before 2 o'clock, P.M. on the preceding Thursday.

OFFICE OF RECORDS AND WRITS.

REGULATIONS AS TO COPIES OF AFFIDAVITS BROUGHT IN WITH THE ORIGINALS AND LEFT TO BE EXAMINED AS OFFICE COPIES.

1. After the original affidavit has been marked at the divisional seat, the copy and original must be taken to the stationer by the solicitor.

2. Copies left on a day preceding a motion day, and required for use on the hearing of a motion, and other copies required for immediate use, are to be marked with a special mark at the divisional seat.

3. The stationer is to number the copies in each class (those specially marked and those not so marked) in the order in which the copies in that class are left with him, and at once hand them to the examiners, who will examine them in order, according to their class and number. Copies specially marked will be examined in priority to all copies not specially marked, left the same day.

4. All copies should be left before 2 P.M. of the day preceding that on which they are required to be delivered out. If left after 2 P.M., it may be found impossible to examine them before 6 P.M., the hour at which (according to the office regulations) the examiners and writers leave; and, consequently, the Clerks of Records and Writs cannot undertake that such copies shall be ready for delivery at the opening of the office next day.

5. No person shall be entitled to have a copy belonging to either class examined out of its turn in that class.

6. The foregoing regulations are to be acted on from and after the 16th day of April, 1879.

N.B.—As great inconvenience has hitherto arisen in the office from country solicitors not sending to London the affidavits, copies of which are required for use on motion day, until late on the preceding day, London agents should lose no time in making the above regulations known to them.

INCORPORATED LAW SOCIETY.

RULES MADE BY THE INCORPORATED LAW SOCIETY FOR THE HONOURS EXAMINATION.

Terms used in these rules have (unless inconsistent with the context) the same meanings as they have in the regulations made by the Society on the 27th of November, 1877, as to the Preliminary, Intermediate, and Final Examination of persons intending to become solicitors of the Supreme Court (hereinafter referred to as 'the Regulations').

1. From and after the 31st of December, 1879, no honorary distinction (except local prizes already instituted) will be awarded by the Society to any candidate in respect only of the Final Examination. All honorary distinctions awarded by the Society will—with the exception mentioned—be awarded to candidates who pass the Honours Examination as hereinafter mentioned.

2. From and after the 31st of December, 1879, there shall be held in the hall of the Society, or in such other place as the Examination Committee may from time to time appoint, four voluntary Examinations for Honours in each year. Such examinations shall take place in the same weeks as those in which the Final Examinations are held, and as a general rule on the Friday in those weeks respectively.

3. The Committee shall, with the assistance (so far as they may think proper to resort to the same) of the Examiner or Examiners to be appointed for the purpose by the Council, conduct the Honours Examinations.

4. The Council may, from time to time, by resolution, appoint such competent person or competent persons as they may see fit to be an Examiner or Examiners to assist the Committee in the Honours Examination, and the Council may at pleasure remove any Examiner so appointed.

5. There shall be paid to every Examiner so appointed, not being a member of the Committee or of the Council, such remuneration as the Council may from time to time, by resolution, prescribe.

6. The Honours Examinations shall only be open to candidates who have not completed their twenty-sixth year, and shall be on the subjects specified for the final examinations in the Regulations.

7. Every candidate who is eligible, and desirous to compete for honours shall, at the time when he gives notice of his desire to be examined at any Final Examination, give notice in writing of his desire to be examined for honours. Forms of notice can be obtained at the office of the Society.

8. At each Honours Examination the candidates who, in the opinion of the Committee, are deserving of honorary distinction will be arranged in three classes, and for the purpose of this classification the marks obtained by each candidate at the Final Examination will be taken into consideration, as well as those obtained by him at the Honours Examination.

9. The names of candidates placed in the first class will be arranged in order of merit, and every candidate placed in that class will, in addition to a class certificate, receive a prize.

The names of candidates placed in the second and third classes respectively will be arranged alphabetically, and every candidate placed in those classes will receive a class certificate.

The certificate will be in the following or an equivalent form:

Incorporated Law Society of the United Kingdom.

Honours Examination.

By authority of the Council I do hereby certify that of has passed the Honours Examination, and was placed in the first [second or third] class.

Dated this day of 18

President,
or Vice-President.

10. The names of all candidates who attain honorary distinction will be printed in the Society's Annual Report.

11. At each Honours Examination the following prizes will be awarded, unless in the opinion of the Committee the standard attained should not justify the issue of any first class list:—The Clement's Inn Prize (value £10 10*s.*); the Clifford's Inn Prize (value £5 5*s.*); and the New Inn Prize (value £5 5*s.*); or an additional Society's Prize of like value. In addition the Society will give as many prizes (value £5 5*s.* each) as are required. The value of each prize will be expended by the Society in the purchase of legal, historical, or constitutional works, to be selected by the successful candidate, and such works will be bound at the expense of the Society, and be stamped with the arms of the Society.

12. In addition the following prizes will be awarded according to the result of the Honours Examinations during the year, namely:—

The Reardon Prize, being the dividend on £3,333 6*s.* 8*d.* Consolidated Bank Annuities.

The Scott Prize being the dividend on £1,265 Preferential 4½ per cent. London, Brighton & South Coast Railway Co.'s Stock (1863).

The Broderip Gold Medal, to be purchased with the dividend on £333 6*s.* 8*d.* Reduced Annuities.

JOHN HOLLAMS,
President.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL
FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver.... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns de force, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

LONDON: WILLIAM CLOWES AND SONS, 13, CHARING CROSS, S.W.

In 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth boards, price £1 5s. each.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns d'esprit overlooked, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

A COMPENDIUM OF PRECEDENTS IN CONVEYANCING;

COMPRISING THE FORMS REQUIRED IN ORDINARY PRACTICE.

By THOMAS KEY, one of the Editors of "Davidson's Precedents"; and HOWARD WARBURTON ELPHINSTONE, formerly Lecturer to the Incorporated Law Society; both of Lincoln's Inn, Barristers-at-Law.

"An examination of the work has convinced us that it really supplies a mass of fresh material which every conveyancer will find a most useful addition to his library . . . . We can thoroughly recommend the book to both branches of the profession, but more especially to Solicitors, who will find it a valuable aid for ready use in all ordinary conveyancing practice."—Law Magazine, February, 1879.

Fourth Edition, 2 vols., royal 8vo., price £3 15s., cloth.

LINDLEY'S LAW of PARTNERSHIP.—A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF PARTNERSHIP, including its application to Joint-Stock and other Companies. By Sir NATHANIEL LINDLEY, one of the Judges of H.M.'s High Court of Justice.

8vo., price 18s., cloth.

MAXWELL (Sir P. BENSON) on the INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES.

"This is an admirable book, excellent in its method and arrangement, and clear and thorough in its treatment of the different questions involved. . . . . The work will be found of great practical utility, as affording a key to the method adopted by our Courts in the construction of statutes, and it will be of much value as showing the uniformity which has in general marked the application of the principles of interpretation to a vast variety of legislative enactments."—Law Magazine, July, 1875.

Second Edition, in 1 vol., royal 12mo., price 21s., cloth.

HEYWOOD'S PRACTICE of the COUNTY COURTS; comprising the whole Practice, except in Admiralty and Bankruptcy. The Sections of the Judicature Act applying to County Courts, and the whole of the County Court Statutes, and the Rules, Orders, Forms, and Scales of Fees and Costs, are printed in the Appendices. REGULÆ GENERALES.

ORDER IN COUNCIL APPROVING AMENDED RULES AND ORDERS FOR SETTLING PROCEDURE AND FEES UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE PUBLIC WORSHIP REGULATION ACT, 1874.

At the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of February 1879.

Present,

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the 37th and 38th years of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the better administration of the laws respecting the regulation of Public Worship," it is enacted that Her Majesty may by Order in Council, at any time either before or after the commencement of the said Act, by and with the advice of the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of England, the Judge to be appointed under the said Act, and the Archbishops and Bishops who are members of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two of the said persons, one of them being the Lord High Chancellor or the Lord Chief Justice of England, cause Rules and Orders to be made for regulating the procedure and settling the fees to be taken in proceedings under the said Act, so far as the same may not be expressly regulated by the said Act, and from time to time alter or amend such Rules and Orders; And whereas the Right Honourable James Plaisted Baron Penzance, has been duly appointed Judge under the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and of the Right Honourable Hugh McCalmont Earl Cairns, the Lord High Chancellor, the Right Honourable Sir Alexander James Edmund Cockburn, Baronet, the Lord Chief Justice of England, the said Right Honourable James Plaisted Baron Penzance, the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Lord Archbishop of York, and the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of London, is pleased to make and issue the Rules and Orders hereunto annexed for regulating the said procedure, and to make and ordain the annexed Table of Fees to be taken in proceedings under the said Act; such Rules and Orders and such Table of Fees to be in force from and after the date hereof in lieu and instead of the Rules and Orders and Table of Fees made and issued under an Order in Council, dated the 28th day of June 1875, and now in force.

C. L. PEEL.

RULES AND ORDERS

MADE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF

THE PUBLIC WORSHIP REGULATION ACT, 1874,

(37 & 38 VICT., CAP. 85)

REFERRED TO IN THE FOREGOING ORDER.

Representations, &c.

1. The representation, declarations, and all other documents required by the Act or by these Rules and Orders to be transmitted to the Bishop, shall be either delivered at or sent by post in a registered packet to the Registry of the Diocese within the jurisdiction of which the Church or Burial Ground, to which the representation relates, is situate. Such Registry is herein-after called "the Diocesan Registry," and the Registrar thereof is herein-after called "the Diocesan Registrar." The word "Complainant" is herein-after used to designate the person (or persons if more than one) making the representation.

2. In any case in which a representation shall have been transmitted to the Bishop relating to the Incumbent, or the Church, or Burial Ground of any Benefice or Ecclesiastical Preferment of which the Bishop shall be Patron either by himself or alternately with others, the Diocesan Registrar shall within two days after he has received the same transmit the representation to the Archbishop of the Province by sending the same, in the case of the Province of Canterbury, to the Vicar General's Office directed to the Registrar of the Province, and in the case of the Province of York to the Provincial Registry at York, directed to the Registrar of the Province.—A Form is given in the Appendix, No. 13.

3. In cases in which it is necessary for the Archbishop to act in the place of the Bishop under the 16th Clause of the Act, the Rules and Orders prescribed and applicable for the transmission of documents other than the Representation to the Bishop shall apply to the Archbishop, and in such cases the Vicar General's Office shall, for the purposes of these Rules, be substituted for the Diocesan Registry, and the Registrar of the Province for the Registrar of the Diocese, in cases arising in the Province of Canterbury and the Provincial Registry at York shall, for the purposes of these Rules, be substituted for the Diocesan Registry and the Registrar of the Province for the Registrar of the Diocese in cases arising in the Province of York.

4. In cases arising under Section 16 of the Act, if the Archbishop is Patron of the Benefice, or unable to act within the terms of that section, the Registrar of the Province shall forthwith, after receipt of the Representation, transmit the same to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

5. All documents required by the Act or by these Rules and Orders to be transmitted to the Archbishop or the Judge shall be either delivered at or sent in manner above mentioned to the Registry of the Arches Court of Canterbury (when the matter arises within the Province of Canterbury), or the Registry of the Chancery Court of York (when the matter arises within the Province of York). Such Registry is herein-after called "the Provincial Registry," and the Registrar thereof is herein-after called "the Provincial Registrar."

6. All documents and notices required by these Rules and Orders to be transmitted to the Diocesan or Provincial Registries may be either delivered at or sent in manner above mentioned to such Registries, and all documents and notices to be issued from the said Registries may be sent by post in like manner.

7. The Forms of declaration and representation are printed in the Appendix, Nos. 1, 2, and 3. The declaration, No. 1, in cases where such declaration is required, and in other cases the representation is to be accompanied by an address, to which documents and notices for the Complainant may be sent. The Diocesan Registrar shall acknowledge the receipt of all documents on the days on which they shall be respectively received.—A Form of Receipt is given in the Appendix, No. 4.

8. The Bishop may call attention by notice in writing to any formal defects which may appear on the face of the representation, and require the same to be amended by the Complainant.—A Form of such notice is given in the Appendix, No. 5.

9. Within twenty-one days after the receipt of the representation, unless the Bishop directs that proceedings shall not be taken on it, Form No. 6, the Diocesan Registrar shall transmit by post in a registered packet to the person complained of, herein-after called the "Respondent," addressed to him at his last known place of abode, the following documents:—

1. A copy of the Representation and Declarations.
2. A Requisition to submit to the direction of the Bishop (Form 8).
3. A Consent to do so (Form 9).
4. A Form of Receipt to be signed by the Respondent (Form 7).

If at the end of a week after the transmission of the documents aforesaid the signed receipt shall not be returned to the Diocesan Registry, the Diocesan Registrar shall cause a duplicate copy of the said documents to be personally served upon the Respondent; or in case personal service cannot be effected, the Diocesan Registrar shall substitute such other mode of service as the Bishop may direct. The expense of such personal or substituted service shall be borne by the Respondent, unless the Bishop shall otherwise order.

Consent to submit to Bishop's Directions.

10. The Diocesan Registrar shall, within the time aforesaid, also transmit to the complainant the Form of Consent given in the Appendix to submit to the directions of the Bishop touching the representation, together with the requisition relating thereto; and such consent is to be signed and returned by the Complainant and Respondent respectively into the Diocesan Registry within twenty-one days, if the parties desire the representation to be heard and determined by the Bishop.—The forms of Requisition and Consent are Nos. 8 and 9 in the Appendix

Special Case for Judge's Opinion.

11. At any time after the return of such consents, a special case, signed by the parties and a barrister-at-law, for the opinion of the Judge may be transmitted to the Bishop. Such case is to contain a succinct statement of facts followed by a distinct statement of the questions submitted for the opinion of the Judge.—A Form of Special Case is given in the Appendix, No. 10.

12. The special case shall be forthwith transmitted, Form No. 11, by the Diocesan Registrar to the Judge, who shall be at liberty to require the same to be amended, and to order the transmission to the Provincial Registry of the representation, and all documents relating thereto.

13. The Provincial Registrar shall give notice in writing to the parties of the time and place appointed by the Judge for the hearing of the special case; and on the determination thereof the Provincial Registrar shall transmit to the Diocesan Registrar the determination of the Judge, together with the representation and other documents in his possession.

Transmission to Archbishop of Representation in case of Non-submission to Bishop.

14. If the parties, or either of them, shall fail to return to the Diocesan Registry the consent duly signed, to submit to the Bishop's directions, within twenty-one days after the date of the requisition of the Bishop as to consent of parties to submit to his directions, the Diocesan Registrar shall forthwith transmit the Representation and other papers together to the Archbishop, who shall thereupon require the Judge to hear the same.—The forms of such Transmission and Requisition are given in the Appendix, Nos. 12 and 14. But in case the said Requisition shall from any reason not have reached the hands of the Respondent within two days of the date thereof, the Respondent may, if he requires further time to consider whether he will consent to the Bishop's directions, enter an appearance and apply to the Judge by summons, who may, if the justice of the case requires it, extend the time within which such consent must be required and sent.

15. Upon receipt of a representation by the Provincial Registrar, he shall give notice in writing to the Respondent that the representation has been transmitted by the Archbishop to the Judge, and that, if he desires to contest the matters of the representation, he must within fourteen days cause an appearance to be entered for him, either in his own name or that of his Proctor or Solicitor, by filing an appearance in the Form No. 39 in the Provincial Registry.

16. If the Respondent wishes to raise any question as to the jurisdiction of the Court, he must enter an appearance under protest, and within eight days file in the Provincial Registry his act on petition in extension of such protest, and on the same day deliver a copy thereof to the Complainant. After the entry of an absolute appearance, the Respondent cannot raise any question as to the jurisdiction of the Court unless the same is raised upon his answer.

17. An appearance may be entered at any time by leave of the Judge, to be applied for by summons founded on affidavit.

Appearance.

18. Whenever an appearance is entered by a Complainant or Respondent, or by a Proctor or Solicitor for a Complainant or Respondent, all notices and other documents required by these Rules and Orders to be transmitted to or by the parties shall be transmitted or delivered to or by them or to or by their Proctor or Solicitor at the address furnished by them, and when an appearance is entered by a Proctor or Solicitor for a Complainant or Respondent, he shall within six days thereafter file a proxy authorizing his appearance, and all acts to be done by the parties may be done by their Proctors or Solicitors.—A Form of Appearance is given in the Appendix, No 39.

Security for Respondent's Costs.

19. The Complainant shall deposit in the Provincial Registry such a sum of money as the Judge, upon the report of the Provincial Registrar, shall order, or a bond with two sureties for the like sum, as security for the costs of the Respondent, together with an affidavit of justification by the sureties.—A Form of Bond and of Affidavit of Justification is given in the Appendix, Nos. 15 and 16.

20. The Judge shall be at liberty, upon the application of the Respondent, after the answer and reply (if any) shall have been transmitted, to order further security to be given in manner above set forth, to such amount as he shall think proper.

21. For the purpose of fixing the amount of such further security the parties must attend the Provincial Registrar upon summons to be taken out by the Respondent, and the Provincial Registrar shall report to the Judge.

Notice of Hearing before Judge.

22. After security shall have been given, the Provincial Registrar shall forthwith give notice to the parties of the time and place appointed by the Judge for hearing the said representation; such notice not to be less than twenty-eight days.

23. The day fixed for hearing of the matter of the representation by the Judge may, for sufficient reason, be postponed by order of the Judge, and the proceedings upon such hearing may at any time be adjourned by the Judge.

Answer to Representation, &c.

24. The answer (if any) of the Respondent shall be delivered at or transmitted to the Provincial Registry within twenty-one days of the date of such notice.

25. In the event of the Respondent not transmitting any answer to the representation to the Provincial Registry, he shall, if he desires to appear at the hearing, give ten days' notice in writing of his intention to do so to the Complainants, and in default of such notice he shall not be permitted to appear or take part in the proceedings, unless on sufficient grounds the Judge shall so order.

26. It shall not be lawful for the Complainant, except with the leave of the Judge, to reply to such answer. Such reply, if allowed, is to be delivered at or transmitted to the Provincial Registry within such time as the Judge may direct.

27. Either party shall be at liberty to apply to the Judge or to the Provincial Registrar for an Order upon the other party to amend the representation, answer, or other statement respectively, or for liberty to correct errors in their own statements.—A Form of Answer and Reply is given in the Appendix, Nos. 17 and 18.

28. The Complainant and Respondent (if the latter appears) shall before the hearing deliver at or transmit to the Provincial Registry prayers setting forth the terms of Decree asked for by them.

29. At the hearing the Judge will require proof that the preliminary steps required by the Rules and Orders have been duly taken, and, in particular, proof will be required of the following:—

1. The date of the receipt by the Diocesan Registrar of the representation and other papers respectively transmitted.
2. The dates of transmission of copy of the representation and declaration and of form of receipt to the Respondent, and if receipt returned, the date thereof.
3. If representation served personally or by substitution, the date and mode thereof.
4. The date of transmission to Complainant and Respondent of form of consent to submit to Bishop's directions, and of requisition relating thereto.

Evidence at the Hearing.

30. A Form of Agreement is given in the Appendix, No. 19, to be signed by all parties, and delivered at or transmitted to the Provincial Registry before the hearing, in case they desire that the evidence shall be taken down by a shorthand writer, and that the shorthand writer's notes, duly certified by him, shall be used on appeal, and that a special case shall not be stated. If the Respondent does not appear, the directions of the Judge may be taken hereon at the hearing or previously.

Copy of Judgment, &c., to be transmitted to Bishop.

31. The Provincial Registrar shall transmit to the Diocesan Registry an official copy of the Judgment and of the special case (if any) and the fees payable in respect of such copies shall be paid by the Complainant in the first instance, but shall be costs in the cause. The fees payable in respect of any such copies applied for by the parties shall be paid by them respectively on making application.

Attendance of Registrar at Hearing.

32. At every hearing before the Judge, whether of the representation or of any incidental matter, and whether in Court or Chambers, the Judge shall be attended by the Provincial Registrar if sitting in London, or Westminster, or at York, or the Diocesan Registrar if sitting elsewhere. Such Diocesan Registrar shall transmit to the Provincial Registrar the minutes of the proceedings at the hearing to be recorded by him. The Judge, when sitting in London or Westminster, shall be at liberty to substitute the Registrar of the Arches Court of Canterbury for the Registrar of the Chancery Court of York, although the matter may have arisen within the Province of York, but such Registrar shall transmit to the Provincial Registry at York the minutes of the proceedings to be recorded therein. The Registrars shall, in addition to the other duties hereby required of them, file and preserve all documents received at their respective Registries, other than those which they are required to transmit elsewhere. The Bishop shall, in like manner, be attended by the Diocesan Registrar, who shall be charged with like duties in all proceedings before the Bishop.

Monition.

33. A monition, if ordered by a Bishop, or the Judge, or a Visitor, shall be issued from the Diocesan or Provincial Registry (as the case may be), upon the application of the Complainant and the delivery of a præcipe for the same.

Forms of monition and præcipe are given in the Appendix, Nos. 20 and 21.

Appeal.

34. A party desirous of appealing from a judgment or monition shall deliver into the Provincial Registry a notice of appeal within fifteen days of the service of the monition, in a case where a monition is issued, and in any other case within fifteen days of the date of the judgment; and thereupon the certified notes of evidence, or the special case settled by the Judge (as the case may be), shall be transmitted by the Provincial Registrar with the other documents to the Appeal Registry in manner required by the Court of Appeal.

A Form of Notice of Appeal is given in the Appendix, No. 22.

Suspension pending Appeal of the Execution of a Monition.

35. A Respondent shall be at liberty, at any time after notice of appeal shall have been given, to apply for a summons against the Complainant to show cause why the execution of a monition should not be suspended pending the appeal. At the hearing of such summons the Judge will require such evidence and make such order as he shall think fit.

36. A suspension, if ordered by the Judge, shall be issued from the Provincial Registry upon the application of the Respondent, and the delivery of a præcipe for the same.

Forms of suspension and præcipe are given in the Appendix, Nos. 23 and 24.

Enforcing Obedience.

37. It shall be competent for the Complainant at any time after service of the monition to apply to the Court to enforce obedience to the monition.

In the case of disobedience to the monition of the Bishop, such application shall be made by summons, and shall be supported by the report of the Bishop (Form No. 25 in the Appendix).

In the case of disobedience to the monition of the Judge, the application shall be made by motion, supported by affidavit. A written notice of such motion shall be given to the Respondent at least fourteen days before the hearing thereof, in which the particular facts and conduct of the Respondent which are charged as constituting disobedience to the monition shall be stated with positive averments of time and place, and with as much particularity as is required in the case of a representation. To this notice there shall be appended the copies of one or more affidavits in proof of the statements therein mentioned.

At the hearing of the motion the deponents making the affidavits shall attend, to be examined and cross examined, unless the Respondent shall within five days before the hearing serve a written notice upon the Complainant or his proctor dispensing with their attendance.

It shall also be competent to either party at the hearing of the motion to call witnesses, and raise any points of law or fact for the consideration of the Court, in the same manner as they might on the hearing of the representation.

38. An inhibition, if ordered by the Judge, shall be issued from the Provincial Registry, upon the application of the Complainant, and the delivery of a præcipe for the same.

Forms of inhibition and præcipe are given in the Appendix, Nos 26 and 27.

39. At the expiry of the term named in the inhibition it shall be competent for the Respondent, on delivering an undertaking to obey the monition, Form No. 28, in the Appendix, to apply for a summons against the Complainant, to show cause why a relaxation should not issue, and, if ordered by the Judge, the relaxation shall be issued from the Provincial Registry, upon the application of the Respondent, and the delivery of a præcipe for the same.

Forms of relaxation and præcipe are given in the Appendix, Nos. 29 and 30.

40. A monition, inhibition, and relaxation, when signed by the Provincial or Diocesan Registrar (as the case be), shall be effectual without further attestation.

41. Every monition and inhibition shall be personally served, except in cases where personal service cannot be effected, when such other mode of service shall be substituted as the Judge or Registrar may direct. Such instruments shall be returnable into the Provincial or Diocesan Registry (as the case may be) within a week of such service respectively.

42. A copy of every inhibition to enforce obedience to a Bishop's monition shall be transmitted to the Bishop by the Provincial Registrar.

Cathedral or Collegiate Churches.

43. Where the representation refers to the case of Cathedral or Collegiate Churches, and the Visitor thereof is, under s. 17 of the Act, substituted for the Bishop, the rules relating to the duties to be performed by the Bishop shall apply to such Visitor, but the rule relating to the duties to be performed by the Diocesan Registrar and to the transmission of documents to the Diocesan Registry shall remain applicable.

44. In the event of obedience not being rendered to any monition relating to the fabric, ornaments, furniture, or decorations of a Cathedral or Collegiate Church, a precept, if ordered by the Judge, shall be issued from the Provincial Registry upon the application of the Complainant, and the delivery of a præcipe for the same, authorizing the Registrar or other person or persons named by the Judge to carry into effect the directions contained in the said monition.—Forms of such precept, and præcipe, and of sequestration of the profits of the preferments held in such Cathedral or Collegiate Church by the Dean and Chapter thereof, are given in the Appendix, Nos. 31, 32, and 33.

Subpœnas.

45. A subpœna may include the names of any number of witnesses. The party shall take it, together with a præcipe, to the Provincial Registry, where it shall be signed, and the præcipe deposited.—Forms are given in the Appendix, Nos. 34, 35, 36, and 37.

Admission of Documents.

46. Either party may call upon the other, by notice in writing, to admit any document, saving just exceptions, and, in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same, the costs of proving the document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the cause may be, unless at the hearing the Judge shall certify that the refusal was reasonable; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed as costs in the cause, except in cases where the omission to give the notice was in the opinion of the Registrar a saving of expense.—A Form of Notice to admit is given in the Appendix, No. 38.

Notices.

47. All notices required by these Rules and Orders shall be in writing, and signed by the party.

Digitized by Google

Service of Notices, &c.

48. It shall be sufficient to transmit all notices and other documents intended for the Complainant to the address furnished by him as aforesaid, and to address and transmit by post in a registered packet all notices and other documents intended for the Respondent to his last known place of abode, unless and until the Respondent shall furnish to the Diocesan Registry or the Provincial Registry (as the case may be) another address to which documents may be sent, from which time all such notices and other documents shall be transmitted in like manner to such other address.

Change of Proctor or Solicitor.

49. A party may obtain an order to change his proctor or solicitor upon application by summons to the Judge, or, in his absence, to the Provincial Registrar. In case the former proctor or solicitor neglects to file his bill of costs for taxation at the time required by the order served upon him the party may, with the sanction of the Judge or Provincial Registrar, proceed by the new proctor or solicitor without previous payment of such costs.

Time fixed by these Rules.

50. The Judge shall, in every case in which a time is fixed by these Rules and Orders for the performance of any act, have power to extend the same, with such qualifications and restrictions, and on such terms, as to him may seem fit.

51. To prevent the time limited for the performance of any act, or for any proceeding in default, from expiring before application can be made to the Judge f r an extension thereof, the Provincial Registrar may, upon reasonable cause being shown, extend the time.

52. In computing the time fixed by the Act or by these Rules and Orders for the performance of any act, Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday shall in all cases be excluded from the computation.

53. The Registry shall be open on every day of the year except Sundays, Good Friday, Monday and Tuesday in Easter week, Whit Monday, Christmas Day, and the next following working day, and all days appointed by proclamation to be observed as days of general fast, humiliation, or thanksgiving.

Affidavits.

54. Every affidavit is to be drawn in the first person, and the addition and true place of abode of every deponent is to be inserted therein. Affidavits may be sworn before the Judge, or any Provincial or Diocesan Registrar, or a Commissioner to administer oaths in Chancery.

55. In every affidavit made by two or more persons the names of the several persons making it are to be written in the jurat.

56. No affidavit will be admitted in which any material part is written on an erasure, or in the jurat of which there is any interlineation or erasure, or in which there is any interlineation the extent of which at the time when the affidavit was sworn is not clearly shown by the initials of the authority before whom it was sworn.

57. Where an affidavit is made by any person who is blind, or who from his or her signature, or otherwise, appears to be illiterate, the authority before whom such affidavit is made is to state in the jurat that the affidavit was read in the presence of the party making the same, and that such party seemed perfectly to understand the same, and also made his or her mark, or wrote his or signature thereto, in the presence of the authority.

58. No affidavit is to be deemed to be sufficient which has been sworn before the party on whose behalf the same is offered, or before his proctor or solicitor, or before a partner or clerk of his proctor or solicitor.

59. Proctors and solicitors, and their clerks respectively, if acting for any other proctor or solicitor, shall be subject to the Rules and Orders in respect of taking affidavits which are applicable to those in whose stead they are acting.

60. Where a special time is fixed for filing affidavits no affidavit filed after that time shall be used unless by leave of the Judge.

61. The above Rules and Orders in respect to affidavits shall, so far as the same are applicable, be observed in respect to affirmations and declarations.

Taxing Bills of Costs.

62. All bills of costs are referred to the Registrar of the respective Registry for taxation, and may be taxed by him without any special order for that purpose. Such bills are to be filed in the Registry.

63. Notice of the time appointed for taxation will be forwarded to the party filing the bill at the address furnished by such party.

64. The party who has obtained an appointment to tax a bill of costs shall give the other party to be heard on the taxation thereof at least one clear day's notice of such appointment, and shall at or before the same time deliver to him or them a copy of the bill to be taxed.

65. When an appointment has been made by the Registrar for taxing any bill of costs, and any parties to be heard on the taxation do not attend at the time appointed, the Registrar may nevertheless proceed to tax the bill after the expiration of a quarter of an hour and report the amount thereof, upon being satisfied by affidavit that the party not in attendance had due notice of the time appointed.

66. The bill of costs of any proctor or solicitor will be taxed on his application as against his client after sufficient notice given to the person or persons liable for the payment thereof, or on the application of such person or persons after sufficient notice given to the practitioner.

67. The fees payable on the taxation of any bill of costs shall be paid by the party on whose application the bill is taxed, and shall be allowed as part of such bill; but if more than one-sixth of the amount of any bill of costs taxed as between practitioner and client is disallowed on the taxation thereof no costs incurred in such taxation shall be allowed as part of such bill.

68. If an order for payment of costs is required the same may be obtained by summons on the amount of such costs being certified by the Registrar.—A Form of Monition for costs is given in the Appendix, No. 40.

Summonses.

69. Where the decision of the Judge is required a summons may be taken out by either party in reference to any incidental matter arising out of or connected with any proceedings under the Act.—A Form is given in the Appendix, No. 41.

70. A true copy of the summons is to be served on the party summoned three clear days at least before the summons is returnable, and before five o'clock p.m. On Saturdays the copy of the summons is to be served before two o'clock p.m.

71. Motions to the Judge to be moved by Counsel may be filed under the rules applicable to summonses but subject to the question of the costs thereof.

72. On the day and at the hour named in the summons the party taking out the same is to present himself, with the original summons, before the Judge at the place appointed for hearing the same.

73. Both parties will be heard by the Judge, who will make such order as he may think fit, and a minute of such order will be made by the Provincial Registrar.

74. If the party summoned do not appear after the lapse of half an hour from the time named in the summons, the party taking out the summons shall be at liberty to go before the Judge, who will thereupon make such order as he may think fit.

75. An attendance on behalf of the party summoned for the space of half an hour, if the party taking out the summons do not during such time appear, will be deemed sufficient, and bar the party taking out the summons from the right to go before the Judge on that occasion.

76. If a summons is brought to the Provincial Registry with consent to an order indorsed thereon signed by the party summoned, or by his proctor or solicitor, an order will be drawn up without the necessity of going before the Judge, provided that the order sought is in the opinion of the Provincial Registrar one which under the circumstances would be made by the Judge.

General Rules.

77. In any case not provided for by these Rules the directions of the Judge shall be obtained upon summons to be taken out by the party requiring such directions.

78. Non-compliance with all or any of the above Rules shall be matter of irregularity, and shall be complained or taken advantage of by application to the Judge within a reasonable time who will deal with the matter as justice shall require on the merits, and the forms appended hereto shall not be obligatory, provided that the substance thereof is followed.

79. The Judge may in any case in which the justice of the case appears to him to require or justify it, sanction or order any departure from the above Rules and Orders upon such terms as shall appear to him to be reasonable.

80. Where any complaint arises that any of the documents referred to in the above Rules have not been sent or delivered within the times in the said Statute or in the above Rules prescribed, or that any of the acts, matters, or things required by the same respectively have not been done or performed in the manner or within the times so prescribed, the party complaining thereof shall bring his complaint within a reasonable time before the Judge by summons, who shall make such order as the substantial justice of the matter, subject to the requirements of the Statute, shall require, and in default of such application to the Judge, the party shall be deemed to have waived the said matter of complaint. And if either party desire to rectify any such departure in matters of form or time from the requirements of the Statute or of the above Rules, he may in like manner apply to the Judge on summons, who shall make such order for the continuance of the proceedings or otherwise as the justice of the case shall require.

81. In any particular not provided for by these Rules the general practice of the Arches Court shall be followed as far as the same is applicable.

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

LONDON: WILLIAM CLOWES AND SONS, 13, CHARING CROSS, S.W.

In 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth boards, price £1 5s. each.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns φωναντα συνετοισιν, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of initiation officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1878.

THE Council have to submit their Report and financial statement for the year 1878.

It will be seen by the account that the entire cost of printing and publishing was 14,651*l.* 5*s.* 3*d.*, being an increase in expenditure, as compared with the year 1877, of 2,894*l.* 7*s.* 7*d.* This increase is in part accounted for by the fact that the Council were obliged to reprint the 1876 Series and the INDIAN APPEALS, the stock of which was almost exhausted; and in part by the price paid to the Queen's Printers for the Government INDEX TO THE STATUTES.

Excluding these items, and excluding also the expense of publishing, the sum of 9,499*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.* represents the cost of printing THE LAW REPORTS for 1878—as against 9,421*l.* 15*s.* 1*d.* in 1877—being less than might have been expected from the increased bulk of the Appellate Reports and of the Statutes of 1878. The expenditure upon the Statutes for 1878 was 703*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.*, which, compared with 496*l.* 6*s.* 11*d.* for the previous year, shows an increase of 207*l.* 4*s.* 4*d.*

The Subscriptions for the 1878 Series amounted to 23,556*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.*, being an increase of 826*l.* 7*s.* 1*d.* as compared with the year 1877. The Subscriptions for the back Series amounted to the sum of 2,082*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.*, being an increase of 96*l.* 10*s.* 11*d.* The Council congratulate the Subscribers on this increase in the receipts.

The salaries, including a bonus to the staff, amounted to 10,890*l.* 18*s.* 8*d.*, and the office expenses to 159*l.* 10*s.* 9*d.*

The TRIENNIAL DIGEST, just published, has been given gratis to all the Subscribers to THE LAW REPORTS for the current year.

It will be seen that notwithstanding the great and somewhat exceptional expenditure incurred by the Reprints and the INDEX TO THE STATUTES, the account shows a balance to the credit of the Council of 6,898*l.* 1*s.* 2*d.* (being an increase of about 364*l.* on the balance of the year 1877), besides the unsold stock, valued at cost price (1,943*l.* 19*s.* 2*d.*); making a total of 8,342*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.* standing to the credit of the Council. This substantial balance will enable them to defray the cost of the TRIENNIAL DIGEST, and also to present another bonus to the gentlemen employed on their staff.

The Council have considered the question of reducing the annual subscription: owing however to the expenditure incurred in purchasing and distributing the Government INDEX TO THE STATUTES and in preparing the DIGESTS to the Reports, and having regard to the probability that the staff of reporters may have to be increased at no distant date, in consequence of changes in the Bankruptcy Court and Jurisdiction, the Council do not think it prudent at present to make any alteration in the present subscription.

The accounts for the year have been duly audited.

The following members of the Council—Mr. SERJEANT PULLING, Sir JAMES F. STEPHEN, W. B. GLASSE, Esq., Q.C., JOSEPH BROWN, Esq., Q.C., W. C. FOOKS, Esq., Q.C., and FREDERICK OUVRY, Esq.,—having retired from office as prescribed in the Articles of Association, were severally reappointed by their respective Societies. Subsequently, Sir J. F. STEPHEN, on his elevation to the Bench, resigned his seat on the Council, and the Hon. Society of the Inner Temple have appointed ARTHUR CHARLES, Esq., Q.C., to succeed him.

The thanks of the Council are due to the Law Lords and Her Majesty's Judges for the assistance which they have always so kindly given to the gentlemen engaged in the work of reporting, and to the profession in all its branches for the aid given by them in the loan of papers and otherwise.

By Order,

(Signed) JOSEPH BROWN,
Chairman.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver.... His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or quinquette, and lively audacious turns d'expression, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.

HIGH COURT OF JUSITCE.

CHANCERY DIVISION.

ORDER OF COURT.

Thursday, 29th May, 1879.

WHEREAS by an Order dated the 24th of February, 1879, I did, in consequence of the state of health of the Honourable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD MALINS, being such as temporarily to prevent his sitting in Court or in Chambers, Order and direct that all Causes and Matters which had been assigned to and were then pending before the said Vice-Chancellor should for all purposes be transferred, until further Order, to the Honourable Sir EDWARD FRY, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, attached to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, to be heard and disposed of by him, so far and to such extent as he should consider necessary or expedient. And whereas the state of health of the said Vice-Chancellor continues such as to prevent him from at present resuming his Sittings, and it is expedient to make further provision with respect to certain Causes and Matters that have subsequently been assigned to the said Vice-Chancellor. Now I, the Right Honourable Hugh McCalmont Earl Cairns, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, do Order that all Causes and Matters which since the said 24th day of February, 1879, have been assigned to the said Honourable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD MALINS, and are now pending before him, be in like manner and for all purposes transferred until further Order to the Honourable Sir EDWARD FRY, to be heard and disposed of by him, so far and to such extent as he shall consider necessary or expedient. And this Order is to be drawn up by the Registrar and set up in the several Offices of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

In 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth boards, price £1 5s. each.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns de force et de vigueur, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.

NEW MILITARY DICTIONARY.

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE.

A MILITARY DICTIONARY,

Comprising TERMS, SCIENTIFIC AND OTHERWISE, connected with the SCIENCE OF WAR.

COMPILED BY

MAJOR-GEN. G. E. VOYLE, Retired Royal (Bengal) Artillery, Author of "The Gunner's Aid";

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

THIRD EDITION. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 16s.; post-free, 16s. 6d.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade, and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

'Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns ἁπαξ λεγόμενα συνεχῶς, undreamt of by "the forty"—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson.'—Quarterly Review.
